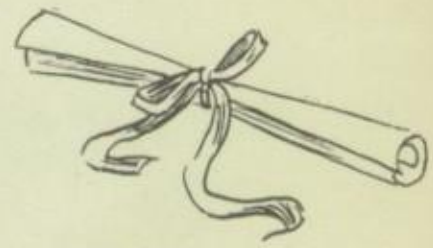
CLASS PROPHESY

FLASH!! A report from the well-remembered class of 49. Now five years later we will try to bring you the latest news as it happened.

GEORGE AANSTAD - Has now become the World's Champion Volley Ball player. He is now touring our neighboring planet Mars, with his followers. You must go to see one of his games; they're simply out of this world.
LOIS JENSEN - Is taking nurses training at the Deaconess Hospital in Milwaukee.
JOAN MYKLEBUST - She is now art editor for the Iola Herald. We hear she really likes her work, too.
GAYLORD LEWISON - He's in the Navy now! It sounds like Navy life suits him, too.
BARBARA WALRATH - Has now established her own athletic school with hundreds of students. She is teaching them everything one could possibly teach them; in the line of athletics, of course.
VICTOR MOREY-He now lives on a little farm a few miles out of Wittenberg. It seems that Wittenberg still has the same attraction for him.
MAVIS BOELTER - She now has a nice job in one of the bigger offices down in Milwaukee. She has been very successful.
JANET REINERT - Now runs a riding academy, taking tourists on sight-seeing tours all over the state.
MERLIN LOKEN - We couldn't begin to tell you!!
DUANE FIETZER - We hear he is farming near Peru. He has one of the better managed farms in the state.
RICHARD WROLSTAD - Last time we saw him, he and his Model A were headed for California. Must be he likes the scenery better out there.
ROSETTA PHELPS - Is now a member of an amateur play group. Because of her success in the Junior Class play, we are sure she will do well.
LA VERN LOKEN - We hear he is running his father's farm and making a success of it as he has of everything else.
DUANE STAMSTA - He now owns the big new Red Owl store down on Main Street. Come and do business with him sometime.
ROSE MARIE MOREY - She is now private secretary in the Smith Ammunition works. We expect to hear any day that she has been made co-owner.
EUGENE STRAND - Is going to college and really is enjoying his work. As far as we know he plans on being a math. teacher.
JACK HALVERSON - He is still minus his class ring, but it is rumored it will soon be exchanged for plain gold band.
JOHN MADSON - Has a very nice little farm and he uses all the newest methods of farming. Why? Because they're less work and it leaves him more time for other things.
ROGER VOIE - He has now taken over his father's business in a large new furniture store in the newer section of town. That will be handy when he furnishes that little house he is building.
VIRGINIA ISAACSON - She is busy with plans for furnishing a house; it couldn't be the same one; could it?
KEITH ROE - He is now through with his college work. But now he has other plans which, we are reasonably sure, will include another person, who is now old enough to consider.
CARLENE SWENSON - Is now, of course, married and lives in Milwaukee where her husband works; she gives piano lessons as a side line.
VIRGINIA NACE - Is now, head typist for the F.B.I., although she told us that she would like to be more.
DAVID OLENCHEK - Has decided to make use of his brilliant mind. He has just finished attending the State University and is thinking of becoming a teacher of math. We hope he'll be able to convince his students as he tried to convince his teachers.
JOAN WILHELM That is rather hard to say. It is a problem.
RUSSELL BESTUL - Still putting most of his interest into sports, but if given another five years we are sure it would be a different story.
MARILY GILLIXON - Is now a nurse in the great new hospital in Waupaca, located where the Hotel formerly stood. Whether you get to see her by accident or otherwise, she will be glad to see you.

MYRON BERGSLIEN - Is now an accomplished business man, and the money is really rolling his way. In time he will be a wealthy man, if he will only leave his secretaries alone.
LORRAINE KRAUSE - Is assistant manager in the dime store at Dow Corners owned by Marcella Thulien. Business has increased.
VALERIE FORSETH - Is now taking up nursing. We wish her all kinds of luck.
RICHARD THOMPSON - Has outwitted Bob Hope. His bradcasts can be heard all over the world. Tune in to Station D.D.T.
VICTOR KNUTSON - Is now a big farmer. If anyone needs a job, just come to see Vic.
KATHRYN GUILLEN - Is no longer a resident of our fair city. We hear of late that she is considering residing in our neighboring village of Scandy. We can't imagine why she should prefer living there.
KERMIT OLSON - Is still going to school, trying to catch up on all the things he thinks he's missed.
JOHN GUILLEN - Is now ski champion of the world. He will be jumping in the World Tournament this coming year. Happy landing, John; we hope it will be soft.
RONDY ENGEBRETSON - Now he has a car and he no longer walks up the hill. They found a little house in a leveler part of town where they will move after the ceremony.
ROGER WRIGHT - Has now become a teacher of math. in Iola's new High School. His Motto is: IF YOU CAN'T WORK THEM, LEAVE THEM GO!!

CLASS HISTORY



In August, 1946, forty freshmen undertook four years of hard study and concentration in Iola High School.

Our teachers in our Freshman year were Mr. Krienke, Science and Civics; Miss Cleaves, English; Mrs. Wagner, Commercial; and Miss Ellandson, Social Science. Our Principal was Mr. Mork and our advisor, Mrs. Wagner.

Class officers were: President; Paul Berg and later Barbara Walrath, Vice President, Merline Loken; Secretary, Elisabeth Aamoth; Treasurer, Rita Simonis.

Paul Berg, Darrell Winkler, Jerry Boehning, and Arthur and Marvin Thompson left us during the year.

We started our Sophomore year with thirty-eight members. Rosanna Mork was no longer with us, but we had two new members, Kermit Olson and La Vern Loken. The only new teacher was Mr. Peterson who replaced Mrs. Wagner in the Commercial department and was also the band director.

Class officers were: President, LaVern Loken; Vice-President, Rita Simonis; Secretary, Carlene Swenson; and Treasurer, John Guillen. Miss Ellandson was our class advisor.

As Juniors we found that Rita Simonis had left us and two new members had joined, Virginia Isaacson and Lois Jensen. We also acquired two new teachers, Mr. Kitze, Principal, and Mrs. Wrolstad, Commercial.

Our class officers were: President, Roger Voie; Vice President, Russell Bestul; Secretary, Valerie Forseth; and Treasurer, Rosetta Phelps. Our class advisor was Mr. Krienke.

The most outstanding social function of the year was the Junior Prom which was held in the Iola High School Gym on April 2, 1948. The gym was decorated with red and white streamers with a huge silver bell in the center. Our theme was 'Serenade of the Bells.' The Grand March was led by Gaylord Lewison and his queen, Virginia Issacson. Her attendants were Joan Wilhelm, Rosetta Phelps, and Carlene Swenson. The music was furnished by Tom Temple and his orchestra.

On March 12, 1948, we presented our Junior Class Play 'Rumors Wanted', which proved a success.

We found that the time was passing swiftly and on our last and final year our class began with 38 members. Mr. Bizer had taken over the position of Principal, replacing Mr. Kitze. Three members had left us, Kenneth Gunderson, Elisabeth Aamoth, and Richard Nassen, but we gained another member, Joan Myklebust. Richard Van Densen also left during the course of the year.

Our senior class officers were: President, Duane Stamsta; Vice-President, Roger Voie; Secretary, Carlene Swenson; and Treasurer, Rosetta Phelps.

Our class motto was 'Today we Follow, Tomorrow we Lead', and our class flower was the American Beauty Rose.

CLASS WILL

The Senior Class of 1949, of Iola High School, County of Waupaca and State of Wisconsin, freely bequest our valuable possessions to those who may find them useful at some later date.

We, the Senior class, being of full age and responsibility--having acquired the full amount of knowledge, declare this our 'Last Will and Testament.'

I, George Aanstad, will my corner seat in Social Problems class to Jeanette Amundson, hoping she can write as many letters as I did.
I, Myron Bergslien, will my position in the library to Walter Beyersdorf..
I, Russell Bestul, will my liking for home life to Donald Dineen.
I, Mavis Boelter, will my typing ability to Gene Hermanson.
I, Bondy Engebretson, will my ability to get along with the teachers to William Wickersham.
I, Duane Feitzer, will all my secretly good times to Janice Swenson.
I, Valerie Forseth, will my 'Camay' complexion to Donna Madson.
I, John Guillen, will my shiny curly hair to Richard Hungerford.
I, Kathryn Guillen, will all my knitting to Julian Mork.
I, Marilyn Gullixon, will my whispering ability to Bonnie Wennesberg.
I, Jack Halverson, will myself to a certain freshman girl in hopes she will not forget me.
I, Virginia Isaacson, will my F.M. (Female Magnestism) to Beverly Larson in hopes that she makes as good use of it as I did.
I, Lois Jenson, will my ability to enter the house quietly at late hours to Jeanette Amundson.
I, Victor Knutson, will my athletic ability to Raymond Brekke.
I, Lorraine Krause, am leaving my jewelry box to Joan Winkler.
I, Gaylord Lewison, leave my footmobile to Donald Olson to save wear and tear on Don's trips up to the Lewison's.
We, Merlin and LaVern Loken, will our Ford to anybody with enough money to pay the repair bills.
I, Rose Marie Morey, will my week-end dates in Waupaca and Weyauwega to Bonnie Schmidt.
I, Victor Morey, will my strength for shot putting to Richard Wilker. Dick might need it in his future track meets.
I, John Madson, will my two front teeth to any person missing theirs.
I, Joan Myklebust, gladly will 5 inches of my height to Lila Aasen.
I, Virginia Nace, will my office position to Avis Knutson.
I, David Olenchek, will my red hair to Donald Loken.
I, Kermit Olson, will my Norwegian accent to Beverlie Lewinski.
I, Rosetta Phelps, will my double chin to Mildred Narlock.
I, Janet Reinert, will my small feet to Evelyn Holmes.
I, Keith Roe, will my skiing ability to Ronnie Wennesberg.
I, Carlene Swenson, have what I want and intend to keep it.
I, Duane Stamsta, will my speaking ability to Janet Olson in hopes she can make better use of it then I did.
I, Eugene Strand, will my quiet disposition to Lois Morrison. She could use it.
I, Richard Thompson, will my QUIET LITTLE CHUCKLES to Elsie Lewison.
I, Roger Voie, will my height to Russell Kolden, hoping he will make more use of it then I did.
I. Barbara Walrath, will my mail box plus its contents to the next year's Hilltopper staff.
I, Joan Wilhelm, will my dancing ability to Doris Solberg.
I, Roger Wright, will my ability to get along with Mr. Bizer to Carter Olson.
I, Richard Wrolstad, will my grammar pad to Joyce McKellips.

To the Faculty, the following:

To Mr. Bizer we leave polite, quiet, studious students, hoping we set good examples.
To Miss Cleaves, we leave happiness, joy and contentment.
To Mrs. Knutson, we leave David Olenchek's witty remarks.
To Mr. Kreinke, we leave a case of dynamite for future experiments.
To Mrs. Wrolstad, we leave all our old bookkeeping books in hopes she can make more out of them than we could.
To Mrs. Testin, we leave all our musical talent and our ability to sing to lower classmen in hopes they can sing as flat as we did.
To. Mr. Stephan, we leave a new typewriter for fear the one he has may wear out just being carried from room to room.

To the Classes, the following:

To the Junior class, we leave our studious study habits.
To the Sophomore class, we leave our typing ability.
To the Freshmen class, we leave the ability to study so they someday may become a Senior.

CLASS POEM

It all began back in '45
When a new freshman class began to strive.
We were forty little freshmen, green as grass,
Known as the High School's biggest class;
We soon were reduced to thirty-five-
But our class was still very much alive.
Our first thought was to quench all fear
Of failing in our freshman year.
The year was up and school was still
Until the bell tolled on the hill.
Then we were called, 'sophomore,'
Just one step farther than before.
Our sophomore year was fairly quiet
But, I am sure, we learned more by it.
As Juniors we came up the hill
So that we, our brains could fill.
Our thoughts and efforts were sincere
And we learned quite a bit that year.
Our Junior Class Play turned out well
And our Prom was really swell.
Our school days seemed many; our vacations seemed few;
But all through our struggles our knowledge grew.
And now that we're Seniors and look in the past
We wonder how four years could go so fast. '
Now graduation is almost here;
And we have completed our high school career.
We've passed four years and none must face
A failing mark, or it's disgrace.
We thank our teachers for everything
They've done for us from fall to spring.
'Today we follow; tomorrow we lead,'
We hope our motto will help us to succeed.

BASKETBALL

The 1948-49 basketball season ended with the Iola High School Cagers in third place in the Central Wisconsin Conference. This record of 5 wins and 5 defeats in conference play is the highest ever held by Iola since 1936.

In the district tournament held at Waupaca, Iola dropped its first game to Amherst. The game was a real battle all the way through with the score ending at 36 - 33. After losing the first game Iola went on to defeat Bear Creek and Shiocton for Consolation Championship.

The leading scorers for the season were Lewison, Bestul and Olson respectively.

The 'B' team, while playing very hard ball couldn't hit their stride, winning only one conference game and losing nine.

The basketball team wants to sincerely thank Mr. Testin for the fine dinner he gave us. We also want to thank the other business men who gave us treats.

Scores of games played during the season.

BAND NEWS

The director for this year was Mrs. Testin. Daily band rehearsals were held from 11:15 to 12:00. New members were added throughout the year and many are still taking lessons.

Our Pep Band played at basketball games and Pep meetings.

The enrollment at the close of the year was thirty-six. Eight seniors will leave the band this year. We're sure their positions will be filled by new members and we hope some of the graduates will make use of their musical ability

The band's first appearance was at the School Carnival, held October 29.

Several new instruments were purchased. Among them are the cornet and tuba.

The band tournaments were held at Marion and New London--Marion being the 21st of April and New London, May 7.

'Miss Jimmy' was presented by the Senior class on May 6, 1949.

The action of the play began when Jimmy is forced by his fraternity brothers to enter the girls' dormitory in search of a girl's dress to wear in an initiation stunt. At the same time the girls are finding it difficult to get dates for their big dance of the year with anyone but brothers, cousins, and uncles, and when they capture Jimmy they decide to make his fraternity brothers escort them to the prom by holding Jimmy for ransom. From then on things happen. The girls have a time keeping Jimmy hidden from Professor Frazier and the dean. When they all fall for Jimmy and try to win him, Jimmy tries to escape by posing as 'Miss Jimmy' in Louise's dress. When everything looks clear, the chief of police, who has a long record for catching kidnappers, appears.

Louise, the chief character, is a sophomore. She is a pleasant girl about nineteen who is not so sure that studying is the best thing a girl can do in spring.

Florence, her roommate, is not so romantically inclined, and tries to appear hard-boiled by making wise cracks. Catherine is a brunette of the type that men are said to prefer, and she definitely prefers men. Doris, who rooms with her is the freshman drudge. Harriet, the campus snob with an inferiority complex, is a dark haired siren. In contrast with college girls is the part of Miss Watkins, an old woman who heads the school.

The parts for the men include Jimmy, Droopy and Professor Frazier. Jimmy is the typical college boy, a little serious and still gay, but subject to romance in the spring. Droopy, the colored janitor, is exactly that. Professor Frazier went to Oxford and came back with a taste for tea and English accent.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Jimmy, a stray junior from the State University--------Richard Wrolstad
Catherine, a junior living across the hall from Harriet---Virginia Nace
Doris, her freshman roommate----------Janet Reinert
Droopy, the colored man of all work----------Rondy Engebretson
Miss Watkins, dean of Brier Mountain College for Women--Barbara Walrath
Prof. Frazier, Rhodes scholar and instructor in English---Duane Stamsta
Director of the play----------Miss Cleaves

Seated left to right:

Harriet, a senior who lives next door----------Joan Wilhelm
Louise, a sophomore at Brier mountain College for Women-Carlene Swenson
Florence, her roommate----------Rosetta Phelps

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

'Girls Are Like That' was presented by the Junior class on February 3, 1949.

It centered around Virginia Poole, who is to receive a large amount of money from her wealthy Aunt when she is engaged. Virginia gets engaged to Tommy Davis and as the play opens, the Aunt is coming (with the check) to meet Virginia's fiance. But then Tommy jilts Virginia for a career in South America and she is left high and dry. Mary Jane, the younger sister, has been writing to Jack Everett, a famous radio announcer, signing Virginia's name to them, and now Jack is coming to Cartersville to give a broadcast and plans to visit Virginia. Only Mary Jane and Essie know this and keep it to themselves until too late. Meanwhile, Lillian receives a phone call from a Jimmy Shields of Chicago, so she arranges for him to come to the Poole home when the wealthy Aunt is there and pose as Virginia's fiance during her visit. Everything works up to a merry climax when Aunt Jane arrives a day earlier than expected, Jack Everett beats Jimmy at getting to the Poole home, which results in havoc and then Tommy decides he likes Virginia better than his planned career and comes back trying to reclaim her. In the midst of all this, Mom comes home again. P. S. Jack got Virginia.

Mary Jane Poole, a problem child----------Shirley Bergen
Essie, a cousin----------Elsie Lewison
Mom Poole, a young mother----------Mildred Narlock
Virginia Poole, her favorite daughter--Charlotte Aronson
Lillian Root, a fixer----------Doris Solberg
Aunt Jane, a wealthy woman----------June Roe
Jack Everett, a radio announcer---------Sidney Ellington
Jimmy Shields, a stranger in town----------David Nelson
Helen, Jack's sister----------Shirley Winkler
Tommy Davis, a fiance----------Arlo Olson

FORENSICS

Serious Declamations
Front: J. Swenson, N. Bahr, J. Amundson,
Back: D. Stamsta, J. Leean, C. Aronson.

On March 16, The Iola High School was host to the League Contest. The following people represented Iola High School in this tournament: Oratory, David Nelson; Serious Declamation, Duane Stamsta and Charlotte Aronson; Humorous Declamation, William Wickersham and Shirley Bergen. Shirley on receiving an A rating will represent Iola at the District Contest in Stevens Point on April 5. It is hoped that next year more students will realize the importance of Forensics and will take advantage of this opportunity.

This year the six schools which compose our league decided to award a traveling trophy to the school that does the best work in Forensics. The school that wins this trophy may keep it for one year. Then it will again be awarded to another school that receives the best ratings. This should be something that every student should work for.

Front: C. Olson, J. Miller, M. Helgeson, D. Solberg, J. Voie.
Back: S. Bergen, R. Wennesberg, J. Lewinski, J. Moe, W. Wickersham.
